FOOD TRUCK MASHUP & TASTE-A-THON. ONLY 1,000 JUDGES CAN VOTE FOR THE TRUCK THEY THINK DESERVES THE $10,000*

Texas Trucklandia Fest is a $10,000 food truck tasting in its fourth year here in Austin. What originally began as a scavenger-hunt type of event in 2013 has now evolved into a downtown food truck face-off!

About forty food trucks will be gathering at the Austin American Statesman property (corner of Barton Springs and Congress avenue, right under the "bat bridge") on Saturday, October 15th, to offer you (if you're a judge) a sample of their product that they feel is worth your $10,000 vote.

The quantity of sampling judges is limited to the first 1,000 who respond, but if you miss the chance to be a judge, you can still show up and pick any of the food trucks to have your street food feast!

The event will showcase food trucks specializing in all areas of cuisine, and will include local Austin trucks and trailers, as well as out-of-towners looking to make their Austin mark. Revenge of the Pork BBQ will be making a trek from Killeen, Munchies Grub Bus from Corpus Christi, and Roxy's Twisted Sandwiches from Arkansas!

Local veterans of Trucklandia Fest like Wholly Kabob and Taco Baby will also be throwing their hat into the ring, joining Austin newcomers Longhorn Chicken and La Gala Peña Ceviches to woo participants into giving up their $10,000 vote.

Trucks will be serving from 11 AM to 8 PM, and various music acts will be performing throughout the day as well. Sample judging wristbands are $29.95, and general admission is $5.95. So even if you cannot commit to taking the 40-truck sampling tour, make sure you make a point to try out some of the best food trucks this city has to offer. And most importantly, remember to feed your face and spread the love!
