TEXAS BALLET THEATRE PRESENTS: ROMEO AND JULIET.

March 12-14, 2010 at Winspear Opera House. Ben Stevenson's masterful adaptation brings Shakespeare's classic story to life. Set in sixteenth century Verona, Italy, Romeo and Juliet chronicles the tragic romance of two young lovers from families on opposing sides of a bitter feud. After meeting at a masked ball, the couple falls head-over-heels in love during a romantic encounter on Juliet's balcony and are secretly wed. They then find themselves trapped in a vicious web of circumstance as they rush headlong towards their tragic destiny. With striking music by Prokofiev, Romeo and Juliet features impassioned dancing and acting by Texas Ballet Theater's talented company. Friday- 8:00pm, Saturday- 2:00pm & 8:00pm, Sunday- 2:00pm. For Season or Single Ticket information, call the Texas Ballet Theatre hot line at (877)828-9200 or visit www.texasballettheatre.org Group Rate Discounts also available.

"Pets of the Week"

LEELAND is a two-year-old male Beagle/Shepherd mix. His calm and gentle demeanor and small frame make him the perfect family companion. Plus, he's lovable, intelligent, good with other dogs and easy going. At only 29 pounds, he truly is the perfect size. A transfer from another shelter, Leeland has been waiting for a family to call his own since February 20. #9754439

MAXINE is a fifteen-year-old female Domestic Long Hair/Persian mix. She may be a senior citizen, but she still has quite a bit of pep left in her. She loves to play with people and toys, and will purr loudly to show you how happy she is. Her previous owner surrendered her to the SPCA of Texas because they didn't have a home anymore. If you're looking for a mature, easy-going companion and would like to provide Maxine with a comfortable home for her retirement years, she would love to meet you today. #9517298
