Great Racing under the Lights at Texas Motor Speedway

The Firestone 550k race weekend is right around the corner and race fans are ready for two competitive racing events under the lights of Texas Motor Speedway's 1.5-mile oval – the WinStar World Casino 400k NASCAR Camping World Truck Series race on June 4 and Firestone 550k IndyCar Series race on June 5.

The Firestone 550k is the seventh race of the 17-event IndyCar Series season and the only stop the open-wheel series makes at Texas Motor Speedway. This will be the 14th edition of this summer event that is known as "America's Original Nighttime IndyCar Race."

Last year, IndyCar driver Helio Castroneves joined former Team Penske teammate Sam Hornish Jr. as the only three-time IndyCar Series winners at Texas Motor Speedway. The race was dominated by Castroneves' teammate Ryan Briscoe, who led a race-high 160 laps, but a quicker final pit stop by Castroneves proved to be the difference as he took the lead and would not relinquish it. With the win, Castroneves became the third driver to win both of the IndyCar Series' marquee events – the Indy 500 and Bombardier Learjet 550k – in the same season, joining Arie Luyendyk (1997) and Scott Dixon (2008).

The WinStar World Casino 400k is the first of two stops at Texas Motor Speedway for the NASCAR Camping World Truck Series. Todd Bodine emerged as the winningest driver at Texas Motor Speedway when he claimed his fifth truck series victory in the WinStar World Casino 400k last season. Bodine's gamble to conserve fuel for the final 63 laps paid off as he held on for a 1.321-second victory over Matt Crafton. The event set a track record for the fastest truck series race with an average speed of 153.133 mph.

Before the racing action on Saturday, fans can catch country music recording artist and former "Dancing with the Stars" champion Julianne Hough in concert. Hough will perform a live concert to headline charity-driven Family Fun Day! at the Texas Motor Speedway Dirt Track. The inaugural family entertainment event will be held from Noon to 5 p.m. CT with proceeds benefitting the Family Support Foundation for Mental Illness and Speedway Children's Charities-Texas Chapter. Tickets for Family Fun Day! are $20 for adults, $10 for children 12 and under, and free to children under two years of age. Parking is free.

Fans attending the Firestone 550k on Saturday also will witness legendary motorcycle daredevil Robbie Knievel's third jump at TMS, as he will attempt "Kaptain Robbie Knievel: Above The Law." Knievel will attempt to break his personal best by jumping 200-plus feet of City of Roanoke service vehicles. The "Kaptain Robbie Knievel: Above The Law" jump is scheduled for 6:15 p.m. CT, approximately 90 minutes prior to the start of the Firestone 550k, on a specially constructed ramp system that will be situated on the speedway's frontstretch.

Tickets for Family Fun Day!, the WinStar World Casino 400k and Firestone 550k can be purchased by calling (817) 215-8500 or visiting www.texasmotorspeedway.com.
