If you could spend a week with a famous person, who would it be and why?

The famous person I would meet is Selena Gomez. I would bring my friends Rylee and Jasmine. We would all go to the mall together. We would drive to the mall in a limo. It would be Hannah Montana's limo because Selena does not have one yet. After the long drive to the mall, we decided to get ice cream. The line was very long! There were over 25 people in it. We decided to shop and come back later for ice cream. We bought some shirts and shoes. We got all of the stuff for free, it felt like we were robbing the mall. We saw the line for ice cream was shorter, so we ran to get some. We got cookies n' cream ice cream. We decided to have a sleep over because we were best friends for life. We see each other every weekend now.

The most famous person I would hang out with for a week is Barack Obama. He is the President! We will go every where, like his house. I have never seen his house and would like to visit. I would love to see Michelle Obama. Next we would go to the mall with his body guards. Then we would probably go to the movies. Last we would return from the movies and go on a tour of the White House. I bet there are a lot of rooms. I want to meet his children. I don't know their names but I heard they are very nice. I wonder what school they go too? That is who I would spend my week with.

Morgan S., 10

If I could be with somebody famous then it would be Drake. He is famous and had a lot of money. I would hang out with a lot of famous people. He would give me a lot of money. We would go shopping and buy clothes and shoes. Then we would go back to his house. I would watch him sing. I would sit in the front row seats.

Jeremiah F., 10

I will spend the whole day with Miles Austin. We would go to Six Flags. After Six Flags we would go to the Cowboys Stadium in Arlington. He would give me some Cowboys Jerseys and some clicks. We would practice catching the ball. He would give me his autograph. He would take me to his machine and we would play PS3. He would take me to the car and show me the stadium and meet some players. We would run some plays and I would be the running back. He would take me home and give me $1,000.00.

Ernest E., 9

If I could spend a week with a famous person it would be Lil' Wayne. I would ask him for every pair of shoes I want and lots of money for my birthday. I would ask to be in one of his songs. If he said yes, I would ask to be in the Six Foot, Seven Foot song before he made it. If he did let me, I would be the coolest one in my school. I wouldn't tell my friends I would just let them find out for themselves. Then I would ask if I can meet the Young Money Crew and the Cash Money Crew. I would ask him if he wants to have a party and invite all of my friends. I would tell him to have a rap battle with Birdman.

One spectacular summer day I went to a spooky lake in the misty swamp. My friend Donald heard a ghost. He jumped on to a knight statue. I turned around and saw Michael Jackson dancing. It was the most spectacular thing I have ever seen. Michael jumped, spun and even levitates to songs like Speed Demon, Leave Me Alone, Bad and Thriller. Then he said the most wonderful thing- he volunteered to teach me how to dance. YES! After that I found Donald and we went back home. On our way home I found a ghost puppy and named him, Ghost. He could fly, flip and talk. I took him home and fed him Ghosties. We watched TV and I let him pick the channel. Then he gave me immortality. We became best friends.
