Avoid Pet Scams

NEVER

- Respond to email/text only pet offers
- Respond to out-of-state offers
- Purchase pets from someone promising a free pet for the cost of shipping
- Send or wire money to people you have never met
- Purchase a puppy with the promise of getting the registration certificate later

WATCH OUT

- If a local telephone number is used and forwards to an out-of-state telephone number
- Avoid discounted prices for purebreds that appear "too good to be true"
- If you are told there will be no refund under any circumstances

ALWAYS

- Do a web search for the contact information and pictures of pet to see if the information is being used by someone else or has bad reviews
- Request/check references
- Verify parents' registration with the appropriate kennel club on pedigreed pets

If you have been a victim of a pet scam from an ad in our paper, in addition to notifying The Greensheet, please contact the below appropriate organization to also file an official complaint:

Say Hello To "Toph" ID#322238

Toph is a three-year-old Domestic Shorthair mix who was surrendered to the Houston SPCA with her litter of kittens. She has lived with other cats and dogs, and is content to keep to herself or seek out attention on her own terms. She's a tidy little cat who just needs a place to call her own.

Houston SPCA is open every day including weekends!
