Avoid Pet Scams

NEVER

- Respond to email/text only pet offers
- Respond to out-of-state offers
- Purchase pets from someone promising a free pet for the cost of shipping
- Send or wire money to people you have never met
- Purchase a puppy with the promise of getting the registration certificate later

ALWAYS

- Do a web search for the contact information and pictures of pet to see if the information is being used by someone else or has bad reviews
- Request/check references
- Verify parents' registration with the appropriate kennel club on pedigreed pets

WATCH OUT

- If a local telephone number is used and forwards to an out-of-state telephone number
- Avoid discounted prices for purebreds that appear "too good to be true"
- If you are told there will be no refund under any circumstances

If you have been a victim of a pet scam from an ad in our paper, in addition to notifying The Greensheet, please contact the below appropriate organization to also file an official complaint:

Say Hello To "Tiger"

Tiger ID#300031 is a sweet and reserved one-year-old Shepherd mix looking for a new forever home. He used to live outside so he will need some help being house trained, but he is a gentle and low-key dog who is eager to learn. He lived with kids and other dogs. To learn how you can adopt Tiger for the new year, go to www.HoustonSPCA.org, and visit him at the Houston SPCA today.
