HOUSTON on the Cheap

7 Free Things to Do in Houston This Week

There's never a dull moment in Houston. Here are 7 options for free fun in Houston December 28 - January 1 before planning your free and cheap weekend!

Monday (12/28) — Take advantage of free admission to Czech Center Museum Houston, offered the last Monday each month. The Museum includes antique furniture from European castles, folk art toys and dolls, Bohemian crystal, Czech porcelain, pottery, and costumes. Genealogy research is another aspect of the Center as well a chapel. Located at 4920 San Jacinto.

Tuesday (12/29) — Teachers take note! Katy Budget Books continues its fun day for teachers (winter edition) with Teachers Just Want to Have Fun Day, Tuesday, 8 am - 8 pm. Teachers can enjoy a free continental breakfast from 8 am - 9 am, plus $25 credit on used paperback (or $12.50 used hardback credit), and 20 percent off all new items. Located at 2450 Fry Road.

Tuesday (12/29) — Enjoy free line dance lessons at the stage at Discovery Green, 7 pm - 8 pm, with instructors from Neon Boots. Located at 1500 McKinney.

Thursday (12/31) — Toddlers and preschoolers will enjoy story time each Thursday at Blue Willow Bookshop with a story, art activity, and songs. Located at 14532 Memorial.

Thursday (12/31) — Free Thursday museums with special hours for New Year's Eve:

- Children's Museum of Houston is free 3 pm - 6 pm.
- Houston Museum of Natural Science is free 3 pm - 6 pm.
- Museum of Fine Art, Houston is free 10 am - 5 pm.

Thursday (12/31) — Houston's Theater District is home to a variety of free New Year's fun for all ages at Houston First Presents New Year's Eve. The fun kicks off at 7 pm. Kids will love the magician, DJ, and special countdown beginning at 9 am. Adults will be entertained with The Tontons, Broadway Sing-A-Long, and The B-52s. Don't miss the fireworks at midnight!

Thursday (12/31) — The City of Sugar Land is hosting two different free Sugar Land New Year's celebrations to kick off 2016. The Children's Celebration lasts from 7 pm - 9 pm with street performances, Kids DJ, and a fireworks finale. The adult party kicks off at 10 pm featuring live music, entertainment, and more. Don't miss the 3D Midnight show with fireworks. This celebration is located at Sugar Land Town Square.
